STUDENT ADMITTED TO UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, CLASS OF 2024

“ FROM AN AWKWARD INTRODUCTORY PHONE CALL TO AN ACCEPTANCE LETTER FROM MY DREAM SCHOOL, SHARON AND AMANDA GUIDED ME EVERY STEP OF THE WAY ”

Not only were they able to empathize with what we seniors were going through, they were able to bring out my strengths knowing what universities looked for. With their well-thought strategies, applications became a lot simpler.

They helped me understand myself, giving me freedom to write what I wanted, but prompting me with the right questions to improve my essays with every iteration. Without Origo, I don't think I could have presented myself to universities as well as I did.

At the end of the day, Origo kept my goals top of mind, making sure that I was satisfied with each application I submitted. After countless brainstorming and writing sessions with Sharon and Amanda, I now look at them as more than consultants. They became my friends, and I am forever grateful to have worked with Origo.

MOTHER OF STUDENT ADMITTED TO STANFORD UNIVERSITY, CLASS OF 2023

“ FROM DAY ONE, I KNEW MY SON WAS IN GOOD HANDS ”

The whole graduate application process was an overwhelming one. As parents, while we want to help as much as possible, but the support we can give is limited. Origo consultants came with deep expertise, with personal experience in developing their own applications, as well as helping others to develop theirs. We received weekly updates, and were particularly impressed by how involved, efficient, and comprehensive Origo was in supporting my son through his college essays.

STUDENT ADMITTED TO UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, CLASS OF 2023

“ THE ATTENTION AND INSIGHTFUL FEEDBACK WAS KEY TO MY ACCEPTANCES TO TOP TIER SCHOOLS ”

During my application process, I struggled to come up with ideas for my essays. Origo helped me brainstorm ideas and put them down on paper. The personalized attention and insightful feedback was evident in their high-quality service, and ultimately, acceptances into some of my dream schools.

I am endlessly appreciative of Origo!
